NEW YORK STORE.

Enormous numbers of empty freight cars are being rushed to the South to garner the fruit crop.

Yesterday afternoon the entire Police force swooped down on a disorderly house in lower Wall street and arrested the entire outfit consisting of seven or eight colored inmates of both sexes. Police Judge John L. Whitaker will give their cases a hearing this afternoon.

Personal

Miss Edna Green of Paris, Ky., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hamlet C. Sharp.

Messrs. O. W. and J. M. McIntire of Flemingsburg were visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Quintance and daughter, Miss Lucy
Gordon, are on a visit to relatives at Flemings-burg.

Circuit Court Clerk Isaac Woodward returned yesterday from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Adair and son of Cincinnati are visiting Judge and Mrs. G. W. Adair of Hilltop.

Miss Katherine Brion will arrive today to spend several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. W.
E. Stallion.

Mrs. A. C. Respass and Mrs. R. T. Anderson of Lexington leave tomorrow for Estill Springs for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. John B. Chensant and children of Frankfort are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B.
Burgess of West Second street.

Mrs. F. L. Still of Newport and Miss Anna
Brown of Mt. Olivet are visiting their sister, Mrs. D. M. Reveal of the St. James Hotel.

Mrs. Hamlet C. Sharp and daughter, Miss Martha Green Sharp, have returned home, after a month's visit with relatives in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Anna McDougle is again at Hamilton College, Lexington, after a visit to relatives in Maysville, Flemingsburg, Carlisle and other places in Kentucky.

Mrs. J. D. Logan, Miss Hord, Mrs. J. H.
Meenach, Miss Eva Day, Mrs. J. Dearing and two daughters, Misses Mary and Roberta Wilson, were out of town visitors here yesterday.

Hon. James N. Kehoe was in Ashtland Thursday.

Mrs. James Key and daughter, Isabelle, have returned from Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. Charles Hancock and children are visiting relatives at Cherry Fork, Ohio.

Mrs. H. J. Shea was the guest of relatives at Vanceburg the first of the week.

Miss Nannie Thompson has returned from a visit to the Misses Robertson of near Augusta.

County Judge C. D. Newell and County Clerk
C. L. Wood are in Cincinnati on legal business.

Mr. Charles D. Pearce has returned from Louisville, where he has been a few days this week on business.

Mr. William Madden and cousin, Miss Kathryn Carr, of St. Louis, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Madden, and other relatives.

The game of ball yesterday between the Eagles and Equity teams was a well contested game, everything considered. If the Eagles' pitcher hadn't fallen down in the middle of the game when the score stood 10 to 5 in their favor, and if Daugherty hadn't muffed
the ball, and if Roper had made a few more home runs, and if Charley Mullikin hadn't broken his finger retiring him from the game, and if the Equity boys hadn't taken that hunch on themselves and winning the game by a score of 13 to 12, why the game might have resulted otherwise. John Burk of the Equity team was a factor all through the game and is some pumpkin when it comes to tossing the ball.

Judge Taft expects his speech of acceptance will be 3,500 words in length. On account of its brevity, it will probably only contain reference to leading issues of the campaign, leaving subjects of less importance to be treated in his letter of acceptance, which will contain about 15,000 words.

An Occasion.

We'll borrow the French synonym for bargains as it so aptly describes our offering today. What well gowned woman doesn't count among her necessities a pair of long White Kid Gloves. What economical woman will not welcome an "occasion" to add to her supply when prices range downward like this:

$3.75, 16-button length $2.50.

$2.75, 12-button length $1.98.

$1.75, three-quarter length $1.25.

The gloves are absolutely faultless, all this season's stock; fresh, clean, new flexible glace white kid, with neatly embroidered backs, re-inforced buttonholes and three pearl buttons. It is an unusual occasion, it is a quality occasion, it is a money saving occasion.

A SAVING SALE.

This Muslin Underwear Sale means money-saving.
Of course any one can make such a statement, but if you know good Muslin Underwear, if you recognize Nain-sooks and trimmings that are not "seconds," if you like full length gowns, full width skirts, neat sewing, tasteful trimmings—these garments will need no guide to your appreciation; your discernment of values will make it certain. Our sale garments are exactly the same standard as our regular stock.

Savings are never made on quality—they are always confined to price. Our economies are safe and sure.
Three prices culled at random from this broad assortment will confirm every detail of our statement. The $2 Petticoats. The $1½ Nightgowns. The 50c Corset Covers.

DOUBLE STAMPS
SATURDAY

Messrs. Merz Bros.—Dear Sirs:

July 13th, 1908.

I received your circular, which I read with a great deal of joy. Though my husband was very busy on his farm and needed all his horses, he allowed me to use one to come to town to your sale. On this circular I had marked each item I wanted. I reached the Bee Hive at 10:30 a. m., and for two hours and a half I waited patiently to be waited on. Finding this impossible, I came back home with as much money as I started with, but I was greatly disappointed. Won't you give me and some others another chance next Saturday and give double stamps?
P. S.—Are all the "Royal" Waists gone? Very truly yours,

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM H. TAFT,

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN,
of New York.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

The world might respect some reformers more if they would begin on themselves first.

Motto for both the Taft and Bryan band-wagons: "Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy votes."

Will some one kindly tell us what Mr. BRYAN has accomplished in his twelve years of strenuous politics except make himself a half millionaire?

Mr. BRYAN is probably now mapping out his plans for his 1912 Presidential campaign. He declares he will not ask another term "if" he is elected. But he fails to say that he won't run again if he is defeated this year. It would be a mighty dull campaign with the Bryan colors hung up on the peg.

HERE is a political pointer from the Democratic Cincinnati Enquirer. After the Bryan nomination at Denver, the New York correspondent of The Enquirer wrote as follows:

"The nomination of Bryan, whose election would at any other time be considered most deplorable from a business standpoint, has no depressing effect, because it had been expected and fully discounted."

"His election is not conceded by any business man."

This campaign expense publicity business is getting to be in the ridiculous class. If Mr. BRYAN is such a purist in such matters he should see to it that whisky and money are not used in elections in old Kentucky, and even in Mason county.

THERE were 58 deaths from sunstroke in New York City last week, against only 5 for the corresponding week last year. The total deaths from all causes in the city last week were 1,516, against 1,456 for the same week last year. Fourth of July week there was not a death reported from tetanus, as a result of accidents, explosions, etc.

WHEN BRYAN was nominated in 1896 and 1900, Democratic papers throughout the country rapidly bolted BRYAN. History is about to repeat itself.

Democratic Press lyn Eagle has an-Repudiates Bryan. nounced its bolt.

The New York World will not support BRYAN. The Cincinnati Enquirer called on him to withdraw.

He will not have a single paper supporting him in the great city of New York, and hardly a paper of marked influence in the East.

History will repeat itself. The Democratic party cannot be forced to cohere on BRYAN, and that is all there is to it.

THE WORST THAT COULD HAVE HAPPENED.

Hazleton (Iowa) Advance.

Tuesday night our citizens were aroused by an alarm of fire. Great excitement prevailed, but the people dashed bravely to the fire hall, whence the alarm came.

All were firmly resolved to die fighting the deadly flames which threatened the very existence of our beautiful little city. But it was a false alarm—there was no anger; the noise which was mistaken for the fire whistle was made by the Hazleton band, playing their first piece.

DESPERATE REMEDIES

"She belongs to a gymnastic dancing class," said the substantial Miss Heron, looking attentively at the feet of the girl sitting opposite in the car. "She is mentally doing her 'sevens'."

"I thought she had St. Vitus' dance," said her friend.

"Well, there is a great family resemblance," admitted Miss Heron. "But just notice the intent look in her eyes. I know the symptoms; I've done those 'sevens' in bed and in elevated cars and on street corners."

"You belong to a gymnastic dancing class!" exclaimed her friend in tones of surprise.

"Yes, and so will you before long, so don't look so horrified."

"I can't imagine myself doing anything so—so—"

"Indignified," said Miss Heron. "Neither could I when Ida broached the subject to me. I thought she had taken leave of her senses. I pointed out that dancing—even plain, ordinary dancing—was not for me, who had plenty of gray hairs and more than enough avoirdupois, and the gymnastic dancing was entirely out of the question. The name, somehow, makes one think of ground and lofty tumbling and all sorts of queer things like that, doesn't it?"

"It does, indeed," said her friend.

"I steadfastly refused to even think of it," Miss Heron went on, "but after Ida had pointed out, politely but emphatically, that embouchure of the worst kind—the hippy kind—had laid its deadly hand upon me, and after she had skillfully aimed a few more shots at my growing infirmities, I gave in to the extent of promising to go and look on."

"Well, she who looks like lost. I immediately got a suit, a pretty one, and now you should hear the compliments I get on my figure! To keep myself from becoming conceited I have every once in a while to remember that when I appeared in the striped red and yellow horror they hand out to the defenseless tourist who goes bathing at the seashore I had no bouquets thrown at me—quite the contrary. So I give the suit its due."

"The first lesson was the buck and wing. Doesn't that sound like a vaudeville number? I put on the stage as performed at the first lesson it would surely make the biggest kind of a hit."

"I never knew what exercise was until I tried to make my brains and eyes and feet move at the same time. I gave up my arms in despair. All I know about them is that they are sure to be the other way, whatever the right way is. It is a little like the time we used to have when we were children and rubbed one hand up and the other down."

"Last lesson we had the flower figure. We call it the 'floor' figure, because we are on the floor a good deal of the time. Even the very dignified girl next to me toppled over. But she didn't care, not a bit; she hadn't time. She scrambled to her knees and began making circles with her arms and pivoting around her waist, trying desperately to catch up."

"As for me, when we were supposed to touch the floor with our foreheads I could only elongate my neck like a turtle. But I'm quite flexible now. I can get within a yard of the goal. Still, that flower figure nearly did me up. I certainly thought I never could go upstairs or downstairs again."

"Well, I don't exactly see where the limbering process comes in," said her friend.

"Neither did I for a while. But you should see me now. I'm a perfect fairy. I'm going to do the buck and wing at Julia's party."

"No, I won't invite you to our class for a while. I'd be mobbed. Helen had two visitors and the way they made fun of us was shocking. The tales they told of how funny some of us looked balancing on our hind feet when we should be balancing on our fore feet and their imitations of the collision between two of us—one prouetting to the right and the other to the left—are very amusing, but we all feel uneasy. The worst of the two took private lessons at a noble price an hour to catch up with us and now we have her at our mercy. If she could possibly imitate herself she would be in great demand as a parlor entertainer."

"Could I take lessons and catch up?" asked the friend. "I do so love to dance, and you know I have rather a nice figure."

"That you have," said Miss Heron, generously. "Still, it might be improved. You needn't take lessons. I'll give you a drill or two and then you can join. It will be fun to bully somebody who doesn't know anything about gymnastic dancing."

Cosmopolitan New York.

Just think of it! New York is the first Irish city of the world. Belfast, the biggest city in Ireland, has a population of only 400,000, while this city has an Irish population of nearly 600,000. It is, moreover, the real metropolis of the Jewish race, since it has a population of 725,000. Warsaw has not quite 300,000. As for Germans, it is the third German city of the world with nearly 700,000 native German inhabitants. Berlin and Hamburg alone exceeding her in this respect.

New York is, further, the second Austrian city in the world, the fifth Swedish, the sixth Norwegian, the seventh Italian and the eighth Russian city in the universe.

IMPROVED FORM OF INCUBATOR.

Operated by Electricity, Better Results Are Secured.

An electric incubator has been introduced in Europe, the operation of which is said to be attended by surer results than other methods, for the reason that it is capable of finer adjustment as far as heating and ventilation are concerned. One of the most difficult features of artificial poultry breeding is a proper supply of fresh air. In the electrical incubator air is supplied from underneath, the entering fresh air coming in contact with the eggs after being properly preheated by special radiators. This ventilation is controlled by opening to a variable extent the lateral slides fixed at the top of the apparatus. It should be remembered that ventilation plays the role of maintaining the life of the germ. While an ample supply of fresh air, therefore, is extremely valuable for the development of the germ, any excess of ventilation will prove detrimental; in fact, the surplus air will exert a drying action on the contents of the eggs. In this incubator the matter of ventilation and heating is looked after automatically.

HAVE SURPLUS OF FURNITURE.

Writer Criticizes Modern Methods of House Adornment.

Most people have far too much furniture in their houses, and certainly the majority indulge in too much textile fabric. Too many curtains, too many antimacassars, too many mats and cushions, says a writer in Good Health. All these things collect and hold dust, and curtains shut out fresh air and sunshine. Carpets, especially in the rooms we sleep in, I would abolish.

The bedroom carpet is a snare, and the sooner it makes its final exit the better for the family health. That great artist and critic, William Morris, once said: "Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful. This is counsel many women might take to heart, thereby making their homes more beautiful, and undoubtedly far easier to keep clean and orderly."

A Friend.

What is the best thing in life? I queried recently. I have raised the same question aforetime, and found the majority of responses leaned to "human affection." Surely there is nothing that comes to us by the grace of God so helpful as this "friend," who may be a husband, a wife, a sister or a brother, who knows the best of us and the worst of us, and who can love us still, ready to stand by us till the morning when our craft has grounded in the shallows or is helplessly stationary in maelstrom vortex, when we need all the strength our God can give simply to live, my friend, simply to live! How rare friends are one soon realizes, and how priceless no words can duly say.—Home Chat.

Clinched His Statement.

They were cross-examining in a Chicago court recently, a hoodlum who had been caught in the act of playing some other game than his own. The third sub-assistant district attorney was intent upon a conviction, however, and was doing his best none too successfully, to shake the testimony of the defendant. "You're sure of that?" he yelled, as the hood-maker stuck to an assertion that did not suit the case of the state. "Sure I am certain," came the answer. "You remember that you are under oath?" "I do that." "And you'd swear to this statement of yours?" "Swear to it? Why, Mr. Lawyer, and judge, your honor, I'd bet a hundred on it any day."

How Coal Grows.

It takes a prodigious amount of vegetable matter to form a layer of coal, it being estimated that the present growth of the world would make a layer less than one-fifth of an inch in thickness, and that it would take a million years of vegetable growths to form a coal-bed ten feet in thickness.

The United States has an area of more than 440,000 square miles of coal-fields, and more than 100,000,000 tons of coal were mined in this country last year—enough to run a ring around the earth at the center 5 1/2 feet wide and 5 1/2 feet thick. Competent scientists say that there is enough coal in the United States to supply the world for the next 2,000 years.

In the Same Boat.

An old couple in Glasgow were in a very depressed state owing to dull trade.

Thinking their son in America would help them, they wrote stating their trouble, and that if he did not help them they would have to go to the poorhouse.

Three weeks passed, and then came a letter from their son, saying:

"Dear Mither and Faither—Just wait anither fortnicht an' I'll come hame an' gang wi' ye. Your affectionate son."

Boiled Down.

"Tired of hearing my 'sugary words,' are you, Pulsatilla Corkins!" howled the indignant Orlando. "Perhaps you will be kind enough to tell me, Miss Corkins, what a sugary word is? What is it made of?"

"It is made, Mr. Spoonamore," answered the fair Pulsatilla, "of verbum sap."

Without another word of any description Orlando Spoonamore grabbed his hat and groped his way out into the darkness night. The blow had crushed him.

ARE ASHAMED OF THEIR JOB.

Men Not on Exhibition While Engaged in Washing Clothes.

"I don't see why it is," mused the flat dweller, "that men are so ashamed of washing clothes when they are caught at it. Why shouldn't they? Washing is about the hardest work anybody can do, and yet it is relegated to women. The other morning I got up unusually early, and, looking across into the window of the next apartment through my kitchen window, saw some one with short hair bending over the tub. At first I thought it was a short-haired girl, but when she raised up and I saw that she had on trousers it was borne in upon me that she was a boy. The moment he looked at me he frowned, came to the window, and angrily drew the curtain down. Now, why shouldn't he have washed those clothes with the curtain up and me looking at him just the same as he would have done if he had been a short-haired girl?"

Utilizing Sun's Rays.

The usual method of using solar heat has been to concentrate the sun's rays by mirrors, but in the simpler apparatus with which Frank Shuman has been experimenting at Taconia, Pa., the direct rays have been made to heat a boiler of blackened pipe coils inclosed in a shallow box with a double glass top. An air space of one inch between the two layers of glass forms a jacket preventing escape of heat by radiation. Water in the pipes generated steam with a pressure of 15 pounds, which was made to drive an engine, and by employing either a pressure of 90 pounds was reached. In warm climates a good working pressure is expected from water, thus solving the perplexing power problem of tropical lands.

Explaining the Ghost.

The most popular creature in theatrical circles is "the ghost," and the ghost is said "to walk" when salaries are paid. The credit for originating this phrase belongs to a company of English strolling players who, although their salaries had long been in arrears, were rehearsing "Hamlet." The rehearsal progressed, but when Hamlet, referring to the ghost, exclaimed: "Perchance 'twill walk again," that sordid spirit yelled back again emphatically: "No! I'm damned if the ghost walks any more until our salaries are paid!"—Bohemian.

FATALLY INJURED

Orlando P. Cox Caught in a Rapidly Moving Belt and Hurlled Against a Piece of Machinery, Injuring Him So Badly That He Died This Morning

During the past several days the steam ferryboat Lorraine has been tied to the wharf undergoing repairs, and in the interim Captain Phister has utilized his gasoline boat Florinel as a ferry craft.

Mr. Orlando P. Cox, an expert in matters pertaining to the running and manipulation of gasoline engines, had been employed to assist Captain William Clephane and it was while acting in that capacity he met with the fatal accident which befell him shortly before the noon hour yesterday.

Just how it happened is not perfectly clear, as no one was present when it occurred, the rest of the crew being in the forward part of the boat.

The passage way on either side of the engine is very narrow and a large belt that operates the wheel takes up considerable space. It is supposed in adjusting some essential part of the machinery Mr. Cox was caught in the rapidly moving belting and thrown forward with great force, his head striking another part of the engine, inflicting a terrible scalp wound and fracturing his skull.

He was removed in McIlvain & Humphrey's ambulance to his home in East Second street, where he received proper surgical attention, Drs. Taulbee, Taylor and Harover being called in the case.

It was not until the pressure was removed off the brain and the skull trephined that he regained consciousness.

He lingered in a comatose state until 6:45 this morning, when death relieved him of his suffering.

Mr. Cox was an exemplary young man and a Christian gentleman. He was the main support of an aged mother and sister, who have the deepest sympathy of the community in the great sorrow and misfortune that has fallen to their lot.

Deceased was 45 years of age and was a Deacon in the First Presbyterian Church.

The funeral arrangements had not been completed when THE LEDGER went to press.

THE State University

LEXINGTON, KY.

The State University, Lexington, Kentucky, offers the following courses: Agricultural, Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Chemical Engineering, and seven scientific courses, each of which extends over four years and leads to a Bachelor's Degree; also, a Department of Law and a Department of Education, which last has been established instead of the Normal School. Persons who enter this Department prepare for advanced work in pedagogy and are granted a Bachelor's Degree in this subject when completed. The Academy for preparatory instruction is retained.

County appointees receive free tuition, privilege of residence in dormitories, fuel and lights and traveling expenses if they remain ten consecutive months or one collegiate year.

The laboratories and museum are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. Military science is fully provided for as required by Congress.

The graduates in the several courses of study readily find employment with liberal remuneration. The total number of matriculates for last year was 1,078. Each department has a specialist at its head, with the necessary number of assistants.

Young women find an excellent home, with board and lodging, in Patterson Hall, which is well equipped with all the modern conveniences, bathroom, hall for physical culture, at $3 per week.

All courses of study in the University are open to women upon identical conditions with those applying to males.

The completion of the Agricultural, Mining, Engineering, Laboratory and Education Buildings afford ample and commodious quarters for these departments, which are rapidly increasing in the number of matriculates.

For catalogues, methods of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAMES K. PATTERSON, PH.D., LL.D., Or to D. C. Frazer, Business Agent. Fall term begins September 10th, 1908. 15 2t

BARNS BURNED

In Woodford County—Night Riders Still Busy

EMINENCE, Ky., July 16th.—The tobacco barns of George Turner and Jeff Riner were destroyed by fire during the night. The cause of the fire is unknown and the reports are meager. Both Messrs. Turner and Riner are associated with tobacco warehouses in Louisville. Mr. Turner's barn had recently been filled with new-mown hay and contained no tobacco.

Both Mr. Riner and Mr. Turner had been extensive tobacco buyers through this district until the beginning of recent troubles, when buying ceased. Mr. Turner's barn was located some miles from Eminence, while Mr. Riner's farm was near Pleasantville.

Mr. Riner's farm, known as the "old Buford farm," is one of the most widely known places in Kentucky, having been the home of Tom Buford.

CUTICURA A STAND-BY THAT NEVER FAILS HER

"I just can't say enough for the Cuticura Remedies. I can't find words high enough to express my thanks to God for hearing of the wonderful remedies. My baby had a running sore on his neck and nothing that I did for it took effect until I used Cuticura. My face was nearly full of better or some similar skin disease. It would itch and, after scratching, it burned so that I could hardly stand it. Two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment cured me. Two years after it broke out on my hands and wrist. I cured it for a while, but it came again in the summer. Sometimes I would go nearly crazy for it itched so badly. I used ten dollars' worth of so-called blood medicines which did no good at all, then I went back to my old stand-by, that had never failed me. One set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills did the work. One set also cured my uncle's baby whose head was a cake of sores, and I know of another woman's baby who was in the same fix and nothing else did any good. I speak a word of praise for Cuticura whenever I see a case that needs it. Mrs. Lillie Wilcher, 770 Eleventh St., Chattanooga, Tenn., Feb. 16, 1907."

CUTICURA OINTMENT

The World's Greatest Skin Cure and Purest and Sweetest of Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful curatives for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded. In proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, irritations, and inflammations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Mayesville Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Mayesville indorsement.
Read the statements of Mayesville citizens.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it:
J. M. Lloyd, farmer, Rural Free Delivery, No. 5, Mayesville, Ky., says:
"I am only too pleased to tell of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills and hope that it may be the means of benefiting other sufferers of kidney troubles. About five years ago my kidneys suddenly became disordered and for several months I was bothered by constant dull pains across my back and through the loins. When I stooped or lifted, sharp twinges shot through my body and caused me the most intense suffering. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I purchased a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore and began using them. The contents of this box effected a complete cure and since then I have not had a touch of backache or any other trouble arising from inactive kidneys."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Did You Ever

Stop to think that if you personally selected the cloth for your own garments you would look different from the rank and file you meet, and that if this cloth were cut to your own measure, and skillfully and honestly tailored by hand, you would have clothes that fit you more perfectly and give you better service than the clothing worn by the masses? Think it over, then have me make you a suit from the cloth and fashion you like best; you will then understand what real merchant tailoring is. The cost is but slight compared with the value given. Suits to order $18 to $40.
